
[Reported for the Louisville Courier.]

POLICE COURT.

GEO. W. JOHNSTON, JUDGE.

WEDNESDAY, July

COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—Wm. Kennedy, an one of Eldred's Circus, whose arrest was [illegible]

MAKING A FUSS in the family, annoying and fussing with his neighbors, father and mother, and himself drunk, and damna his father-in-law, and breaking his neck. He makes nine dollars a week, and gives the wife only half a dollar. He was not good for good behavior.

ASSAULT WITH A SKILLER.—Mr. Thos. O. Gallagher, 1001 E. 12th st., was charged with threatening Pat Gallagher, by wiping his face with a three legged skitter, or take even. It is charged that Gallagher threatened to whip the witness. Several witnesses were sworn in, chiefly the women folks, who testified that Gallagher threatened to whip the witness, the Gallagher and Corcoran rolling on the floor, and the women grabbing them by the hair. Gallagher was charged with striking Corcoran, but he refused, and Corcoran refused to testify.

CORCORAN then went up stairs to dress himself, when Gallagher went up stairs and took Corcoran by the hair, and Corcoran was charged. The Corcoran is said to be a pretty girl—a match for any of the Gallagher clan in the neighborhood.

ANOTHER WITNESS said the Gallagher car with a huge knirk, and the court dismissed the case.

ASTING TO FIGHT.—Patrick Hurley was in the street on the charge of getting drunk and wanting to fight in the neighborhood. Bail of $100 was required for 2 months.

STATION OF TANGLE FOOT.—Augustus McCall was charged sprawling on the pavement, unable to get up. He could not get up at night or in the day of him for 2 months.

CRASY WOMAN.—Mrs. Matilda Salisbury was charged with drinking too much whisky. She says she took blue all over this morning from drinking too much whisky.

FALL IN THE RIVER.—John McGeehee, an
tell overboard, or jumped overboard, fr
Jacob Poe, was fished out, and tried to go
a, but the watch held him, and thus chea prisoner out of his just dues. The court, m moderate, turned him loose with the full

ANOTHER DRUNK.—Henry Stumpel, a white lumberjumper, was presented for getting fight drunk, all about a dime he owed, or didn't owe, that made him mad. His own recognizance was taken to keep the peace, after paying one dollar and a dime costs.

ANOTHER WOMAN DOWN.—Bridget Mahan, a

DRUNK, ETC.—CONCEALED WEAPON.—John J. O'Connell, 300 E. 10th st., was presented on all of the above charges. His wife called in to testify against him. In his defense all the charges were admitted, and he was testimony waived, as the whole thing was a quarrel, in which Mr. Vetter was implicated. The latter had threatened the life of defendant, which induced him to carry the knife, but little more than an ordinary knife, the court concluded to hold him to bail for $200 in the sum of $200.

PEACE WARRANT.—A good sized chap sent to the county jail for a peace warrant.

peace warrant against a little fellow, sweet, who was afraid of him—a curious sort of case. He is afraid, swears to it, and bail of $200 was required.

CALLING THE DOCKET.—The regular month's docket was taken up yesterday afternoon, and a number of cases disposed of.

St. Brown and Pete Leny, for an assault, were fined $15.

L. Brown and ——— Cromer, for an assault ue, were tried, and Brown fined $20.
r was not guilty.
L. White and Wm. W. Williams, indicted tery concern, were presented to a jury, a e was found guilty, and fined $100. The case was continued.
George Walker, C. Farrar, G. McMullen

tori, John Howe, and J. Wood, indicted for breaking open the house of Margaret Cook—sentences—were disposed of; Farran was fined $10 in the first, and $25 in the second case. Swidorf was fined $50 in the first, and $25 in the second. The others were found guilty in the first case, and each fined $10 in the second.

John Zinowaster, for suffering gaming, was found not guilty.
Denhard, similarly indicted, was found not guilty.
Henry Bray for shooting Kate Ellis, an undisciplined act, was found not guilty.
Jack Myer, for an assault, was fined one cent.

RESIGNED—ACCEPTED AGAIN.—Yesterday W. E. Benson, the very efficient and able City Marshal, offered to resign his office. His duties are not only very heavy, but very troublesome, the late provisions of the charter giving him no assistants. As the council would be without an officer if he resigned, they concluded to withhold his resignation for the present.

CRUELTY TO A CHILD.—Herman Voos, a laborer, and his wife, a little Voos, were together indicted for cruel treatment of a child only six years old. The wife is only a stepmother, whose father is but little account, and between the two make the child work all the time, never allowing him any, and whip it half the time. A mother-in-law takes the child over and binds it to her.

Mrs. Sumner Lincoln Fairfield.
The talented and indefatigable lady, the wife of the well-known American poet, Sumner Lincoln Fairfield, arrived in our city on Sunday morning, in the Cahowba, from Havana, where she has been with her youngest daughter, who is a member of the latter's school.

Mr. Fairfield is at the City Hotel, and her to our city is to dispose of a new work accomplished daughters, Genevieve and G a volume of tales which has met with gr
from our most able contemporaries.

late Boston paper says of Mrs. Fairfield: "This extraordinary lady, whose life, trials, and sorrows have made her so generally known, expired upon us yesterday, with a beautiful voluntariness by her accomplished daughters, Genevieve and Gertrude Fairfield.

ancestry. She is a niece of the late artist sculptor, John Frazer, Esq., whose genius has long been known by many of our artists of art in our city—several of whose productions adorn the Athenaeum at this present time. The busts of Webster, and Perkins, and Dr. Bowditch, are all, with many others, the work of his genius.

Fairfield, whose name is so familiarly known to the admirers of his genius in this country as Massachusetts, his native State. We do not speak of this lady with the intention of giving a sketch of her life, for a life like hers is full of incident and trial, and so remarkable a sacrifice, and so painful in the enumeration of domestic sorrows, would occupy much time.

filled volumes. Wedded in early life to the son of genius, she has, for many years, labored to support and educate her children, and to endure the persevering to which we know. The history of her troubles is more a tale of romance than a story of real life.

Orleans Picayune. Mrs. Fairchild arrived in this city, and is stopping at the Hotel, where she will remain a few days. During her stay here Mrs. F. will call on our friends for the purpose of soliciting their subscriptions to the volume alluded to above.

Kentucky Items.
Jas. King was killed by the overturning of a cart near Lebanon, Ky., on June 25th.
LIBERAL SLAYHOLDER.—Lewis Smith was a slave, but has purchased his freedom. When he had achieved this result, his master (a mulatto, of Franklin county, Ky.) gave him the freedom of his wife and his children.

ingest children. The freedom of his four n is offered for $1,200. For the oldest M been offered $1,000, but he refused to sel and holds all of them for his father to ase—if he can raise the money by the first next October. To accomplish this Lewis is ting the assistance of the benevolent a rth.—Phil. Inq.

...to be a ...
...to be a ...
...to be a ...

